

Taipei/Tainan Chapter (RL07) Activities & Awards

IEEE Taipei Section (RL07) has committed itself to promote IEEE Reliability Society in Taiwan. We continuously invite experts, researchers, and scholars to deliver keynote speeches sharing the cutting-edge technology and their innovative research results not only with the members of RL07 but also with the non-members in Taiwan. Furthermore, we encourage student members to have in-depth discussions with the invited speakers and exchange opinions with them in the field of reliability science and engineering.

● Activities

IEEE Reliability Society Taipei Tainan Chapter Meeting was held in the hybrid mode at The Ho Hotel, Hsinchu City, Taiwan, Sep. 21, 2022. In the meeting, Professor Shieh, Chair of the Taipei/Tainan Chapter, introduced RS technical activities, technical committees, and journals. Professor Yang, Vice Chair of the chapter, gave an overview of RS conferences, in particular, the Conference on Dependable and Secure Computing, co-founded by Professor Wen-Guay Tzeng, Professor Shiuhpyng Shieh, and Professor Chun-I Fan of Taipei/Tainan Chapter. Below are some of the photos taken in the meeting.
